

The upcoming 26th Conference of Japanese Association of Health Psychology will be held at Hokusei Gakuen University in Sapporo, Hokkaido, from September 7-8, 2013. It has the main theme of “Living through Illness”, referring to the aim of enriching the lives and increasing the QoL of patients as they deal with chronic diseases. With an anticipated attendance of 350 participants and 130 scheduled presentations (oral and poster sessions), this conference will be an excellent opportunity to foster new knowledge and insights within the field of health psychology in Japan. In addition, JAHP also extends a warm invitation to participants from other related fields to take part in this conference for interdisciplinary research collaborations.
