

Activities:

1. The Hungarian Health Psychology Society (HHPS) collaborates in the review process and in the editorial work of the Journal of Mental Health and Psychosomatics (published by the Academic Publisher Budapest). This journal is issued (editor: Edit Czeglédi, MA, PhD) four times a year, 1000 copies for health psychologists, behavioral scientists and all other professionals working in the field of social and health care, both theory and practice.
2. The HHPS and the Association of the Hungarian Telephone Emergency Services has a research cooperation in the GRUNDTVIG-TESVOLSat (Telephone Survey of Volunteers Satisfaction) project of the IFOTES (International Federation of Telephone Emergency Services).
3. Writing national and international tenders.
4. The Health Psychology Research Group, the Quality of Life Research Group, and the Psychophysiology Research Group of the HHPS performed a nationally and internationally acknowledged research activity, and the results were published in renowned international scientific journals.
