

There are currently two members of I the Russian EHPS division. This year two more researchers are ready to participate in our society.

We have worked at the kindergarten with teacher team on children's health problem, and the work resulted in master's theses.

Members participated in 5 conferences related to health psychology topics.

Documents for Master's program in Health Psychology in Herzen State Pedagogical University were prepared.