

A health psychology symposium was recently organized by Fatih University, Istanbul between December 6-7, 2012. The symposium was called: "Health and Psychology: Interdisciplinary Steps Symposium for Integration in the Field of Health" and everyone interested in the field was welcomed with free attendance. Hosting 28 invited speakers and carrying out two workshops, it aimed to introduce the subfields of health psychology and its interdisciplinary nature.

Between 3-6 April 2013, 4th National Life Quality in Health Congress will be held at Konak Best Western Hotel, İzmir. The deadline for abstract submission is February 15, 2013. Link for further details: <http://kongre.saykad.net/>